A Scrap of California History.

The Printer's Guide for the current month prints the following:

In all the obituary notices of the death of that pioneer printer and editor, Benjamin Park Kooser, we fail to find a reference to what might be considered the great event in his life—if not in his, it certainly was to many others—for it was, as the poet says of the conflict at Concord.

"The shot heard 'round the world."

It seems to be not generally known that it was a letter of Mr. Kooser, then discharged from the army in California, to a newspaper published, we think in Illinois, that caused the great rush of gold hunters from the Eastern States, and indeed the whole civilized world, to California. We well remember that the letter was vouched for by the editor as being from a reliable and responsible party, a printer well known to him, and that every word could be relied on as strictly true, and it was only after many years' acquaintance with Mr. Kooser that we found out that he was the person who indited that famous letter.

On the strength of the indorsement above, the San Francisco Herald copied the letter entire, with formidable display headings and strong comments, and published it to the world as the great discovery of the age, and then commenced such an upheaval of society, breaking up of family relations and kindred ties, followed by the greatest migrations ever witnessed since the crusades—for every race and nation seemed moved by a common impulse, and such a cosmopolitan population as was gathered in San Francisco in the years 1849 and 1850 was truly wonderful to behold.

We think, therefore, that we do but justice to the dead by call attention to the fact, so that the memory of Benjamin P. Kooser may be kept green to the coming generations of Californians, and that a niche may be preserved in the Temple of Fame for his share in making the history of our golden State.

A lame man carrying a basket of groceries went quietly down Main street, Cambridge, yesterday, when with the suddenness of lightning, his hand went up to his eye and his basket went rattling to the ground. The sidewalk was flooded with broken eggs and maple sugar, and the air was burned with profanity. A boy with a bean sling in his hand and the impress of the devil on his face peered around the corner, and as he listened to the old man's blasphemy he muttered: "That was the boss shot!"

A Texas man is seven feet high. Here's seven dollars that if his wife doesn't measure but 3ft. 2, she will somehow manage to hang his hat so high that he can't get it down without using a broom handle.—Fulton Times. Here's another little pile that says if the man actually measures seven feet his wife doesn't measure four. Whenever you see a seven-foot stack of pole of awkwardness it is safe to bet that his wife is only about half as high, or that he hasn't any.—Worcester Press.

Fanny Davenport played two performances at the Arch-street theatre, Philadelphia, last Saturday, during which she appeared in fifteen different acts. The strain was so great that towards the latter part of the performance she became quite ill, and at the conclusion she fainted, and it was a long time before she recovered consciousness. At a benefit for her mother, Mrs. E. L. Davenport, on Tuesday, she was assisted by Eben Plympton, and drew a full house.

Edwin Booth was to have appeared Wednesday last at the Pittsburgh Opera House, but owing to the non-payment of an old gas bill by the management, the gas company shut off the supply suddenly and the theatre closed.

A Rosy Future.

(Detroit Free Press.)

They were in the ball-tower of the city hall yesterday, and she leaned her yellow-haired head on his agricultural shoulders and listened to the mighty "tick tick tick" of the big clock. "We don't want such a big clock as that, do we darling?" she whispered. "No, my little darling," he answered, as he hugged her a little closer. "I kin buy a clock for two dollars which'll run three days to this clock's two. I've got her picked out already!"

"We'll be very, very happy," he sighed. "You bet we will! I've figured it right down fine, one pound of sugar, ten pounds of flour and one pound of butter."

"And you'll have a bank account?" she pleaded.

"I will, even if I have to buy a second-hand one."

"And will we keep a coachman?" "Yes."

"And have a piano?" "Yes, darling."

"And I can have some square pillows with shams on them?"

"Yes, my tulip—yes! We'll sham every darned thing from cellar to garret, have the front painted blue, and—but less go'n look at some second-hand cook stoves!"

A tourist, the morning after his arrival at Venice, hired a gondola in order to see the city. Having passed under the Bridge of Sighs, and reached the spot rendered memorable by the mournful history of Marino Falerio, the gondolier took out his watch and politely said, "We rest for ten minutes here."

With that he lighted his pipe. "What are you waiting for?" asked the traveler.

"Sir," replied the gondolier, "it's the time usually allowed for emotion, for poetic feeling."

And the tourist had to wait till the ten minutes were up.

A New York paper speaks of "A New Era for Deaf Mutes." We should think a new ear would be more desirable in their cases.

By Saturday's vote the citizens of Reno School District have said: "We tax ourselves one-fourth of one per cent. to provide an additional school building, which may cost with all its appliances and the necessary grounds, the sum of $30,000." The total vote cast was 349; "Tax—Yes," 217, thus giving a majority of 83 for the tax. We are glad that this district will have school facilities which are commensurate with its wants, and which shall prove an attraction to our town and county. But we also perceive that a respectable minority, 132, voted against the proposed tax. From this latter fact we argue that our School Trustees should have a care in all their proceedings in carrying into effect the expressed wish of the majority. We are aware that severe criticisms have been passed upon their motives. Such was expected, of course, but they will show their good judgment by giving proper deference even to the most adverse, and even ungenerous criticism. A very considerable number, perhaps a majority of those who did vote affirmatively, are opposed to the expenditure of the full $30,000 in the exact way indicated in the official notice of the Trustees. Therefore we urge them not to take hasty action in the matter. School District No. 10, needs additional school facilities, but let us not abuse our privileges. We do not believe that our School Trustees have any ulterior motives, or certainly extreme selfish ends to subserve. They have, however, much opposition, and a great deal of this opposition springs from generous sources. There is no occasion, however, to feed this opposition. Every minority have rights which in justice must be respected, while good discretion and practical policy demand that this minority must be duly considered and courteously treated. The majority does not have all law and all right on its side and the minority the converse. We are not strictly apprehensive of any serious clashes in this school matter, but consider as appropriate a few precautionary suggestions.

Said Hopkins to us yesterday: "I'll tell you what we want in this country, and that is cheap money. We don't need manufacturers, co-operative unions or anything half so badly as we do cheap money. The country ought to abolish this 3 per cent. business at once and forever. No man can afford to pay it; no man ought to ask it. Now, for instance, look at me on my little ranch. I am improving it. Every year when I sell my crop I pay debts, and the profit will then go towards further improvements. It often happens in consequence that I need money in summer to harvest my crop. In most cases I can get it by paying a murderous rate of interest, while in some instances I can't get it at all, and my grocer charges me 3 per cent. advance in price for waiting on me. If I had my way, either the banks or the rate of interest should come down; and that's all I have to say." We very much fear that Mr. Hopkins is a communist.

Dalziel, formerly of the San Francisco Mail, was ornamented as to his head once more in San Francisco, by T. E. Flynn. Dalziel put Flynn's name in the San Francisco directory as residing in a house of ill fame, and for this Flynn punched his head. About every editor and reporter in San Francisco has now exercised upon Dalziel, and it is to be hoped that they will now wait their turn until the sagebrush scribbles get in. Fairplay is a jewel.

The Stock Report calls the Sacramento Bee Kearney's organ, and we should consider this good evidence that the Bee had been mainly right when in opposition to the Stock Report. The Bee is a bright, readable paper, edited with ability and can afford to be called by such names when the source is no more worth of credence. The Stock Report is the organ of assessments.

Governor Pacheco is sailing about the bay lassoing bucks who chance to be out bathing. He finds this much more agreeable work than he had while trying to capture that goat in Congress.

The buyers of New York and the East are making all due haste to get on the side of silver. The premium on gold is fast melting away, and the discount on silver and currency is growing beautifully less. Resumption is declared to be a settled fact and American bonds are the favorite investment at home and abroad. No signs of the financial disorder and national dishonor which was so speedily to ensue, has yet manifested itself, and it has become necessary for the money sharks to modify many of their sweeping statements. They will also soon find that they have lost the right to shave every merchant's profit and day's wages. What does this all prove? Merely that at one time there were ignorant and unscrupulous men in Congress, and that the Capital of this land found it advantageous to support them. The Enterprise speaks in the following congratulatory way of the situation:

How the figures at which gold is quoted at present must make the class of men who opposed the Silver bill feel! Gold does not seem disposed to leave the country, but rather seems willing to remain and be a more approachable neighbor than it has been for three years past. It is rapidly getting down to its natural position. Its native matrix is the same as that of silver, and when some of us said a good while ago that it was exalted above its brother simply through hostile legislation, we stated a truth which all the world must see in a few weeks more. And our country, which was to be debased and dishonored by the passage of the Silver bill, seems to have survived the indignation pretty well. A sale of $50,000,000 in four and a half per cent. bonds in a single day is not a very discouraging spectacle. We have often of late seen accounts of the irresistible power of Russia, but the Colossus never has been able to dispose of $50,000,000 of 5½ per cent. bonds in a single day. And England, the old bruiser who, a few days since, intimated a strong intention of undertaking a war against combined Europe, if necessary, in defense of her own natural interests and honor, counting alike on the patriotism of her subjects and upon her coffers of gold, she, even, with a keen eye to business, holds America's 4½ per cent. at 104½, while her own consols, the pet security of her rich men and rich dowagers, are rated only at 95 1-16. What has become of all the predictions which we heard, that all our bonds would be returned and no more would be sold?

Fitz John Porter, late Major-General of Volunteers, has been granted a new trial upon his own petition. The case stands about in this way: At the second battle of Bull Run, General Pope issued certain orders to Porter which the latter found it impossible to obey. Pope thought this apparent disobedience prevented him from bagging Longstreet. Subsequent testimony shows that the failure to obey was the only thing which prevented Longstreet from bagging the Pope. A horse of a very dissimilar complexion.

The Department of State has received no official confirmation of the reported recognition of the present Mexican government, and is a little anxious about it. Mr. Foster, our minister to that clime, probably thinks it wise to wait a week and see whether the Government in question does not change.

The Broadway Bank, New York, is paying out gold in sums of $500 and less, and the Northwestern National Bank of Chicago advertises that it will redeem in gold its circulating notes. Hope gold will not go any lower, because we should dislike very much to discount the amount which we have on hand.

Treasury officials and money sharks say that Secretary Sherman's contract for the disposal of $50,000,000 of four and a half per cent. bonds settles the question of resumption. As long as Uncle Sam's note is good for $50,000,000 he can certainly afford to do business.

The Oakland Tribune speaks of W. R. Thomas, a pleasing "terror" of local reputation, who will sing "Down by the Sea." The Tribune is a very frank paper even in its typographical errors.

Oxford beat Cambridge easily in the annual boat race.

There being such general dissatisfaction with the new dollar we propose that Congress pass a law permitting every man to make his own dollar. Come to think, though, we have had to make every dollar we ever had—Saturday Night.

brated French chemist, Mons. D. De Dufour, who manufactured it to jewelry, and for five years sold it to the leading jewelers of Paris for Solid Gold. In 1870, when his secret became known, ten of the most famous jewelers established a stock company, with a capital of $10,000,000, for the purpose of manufacturing Roman Gold Jewelry and Watches. With this immense capital and the aid of improved machinery, they are enabled to produce all the latest patterns of jewelry at less than one-tenth the cost of solid

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S
Private Medical Institute.
309, KEARNEY STREET, SAN FRANCISCO.
Established in 1884.
For the Permanent Cure of all Special and Chronic Diseases, as also all Female Complaints and Diseases of the Ner-

THE IMMENSE DESTRUCTION OF human life annually from secret and chronic diseases, caused this old and reliable institution to be established, first in Philadelphia, Penn., in 1820, and afterwards in San Francisco, Cal., in 1854, as a private dispensary. In order to afford the afflicted the best medical and surgical treatment, for the above and all other affections and complaints. Consultation at the Institute, or by letter, FREE.

To the Afflicted:

Dr. L. J. Caspary would most respectfully inform the people of the Pacific coast that, at the earnest solicitation of his numerous friends, and hundreds of those unfortunately afflicted with disease, he has reopened his and resumed the practice of his profession. The Doctor would remind all those who are in need of medical aid, that since relinquishing his very extensive and successful practice in San Francisco, he has visited the principal cities in Europe, inspecting diligently the experience of the most learned in the profession, the benefit from which he offers to all in need of his services. Rheumatic affections, chronic catarrh, diseases of the stomach.

liver complaints, etc., successfully treated.
Those who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, physical and mental debility, are assured of a permanent cure. Charges moderate. All communication strictly confidential. Medicines sent by express. Address,
